A DEBONAIR PHOTOGRAPHER'S PRIVATE COLLECTION OF NUDES

Drink a toast to Haddon McCauley, one of the men who made the American nude gradually an artistic way of life. McCauley's photographs have appeared in magazines and books at almost every corner of the establishment. You've probably seen hundreds of them yourself. And yet, though McCauley has photographed over two thousand women, as his long and distinguished career, he considers only a few of them to be truly outstanding. "You have to understand," he explains, "that these are my own personal selections. These are girls whom I not only think of as beautiful, because I think they get a picture unless I feel that there is beauty to be gained, but also because they had artistry and imagination that made work ing with them a pleasure I've done most of these girls at least half a dozen times. And I'd be happy to shoot any of them again, rather rare. McCrumb is a woman deranged by beauty, for their classic proportions. But that's not to say that each and all of them have the same standard numerical statistics of 36-23-36. For McCrumb is a true believer in form for its own sake.

Obviously, he says, you can't expect the same numbers to apply to a 180-pound, 5'2" girl as you would to a 120-lb. woman who is 5'7" tall. What's right for one would be technique for the other. A 32-inch bust on the smaller girl might well be actually larger than 36 inches on the larger. Don't laugh. It actually happens that way. Looking through his large collection, we see what he means. The girls look perfect. And what you come right down to is that's the most important thing. ■

Nights With The Devil

[illegible]

Nights With The Devil.

The secret parts of Satana are very much alive. Here and there throughout the world, these devil's disciples still meet in their own rooms and harlequin acts. Recently one of our photographers received permission to photograph such a service. And these unique pictures are the result. The basic model of Satana is the prostitute—a free-pornist was that used to control directly on the ground with a single individual strike. Behind the prostitute stands the altar, decorated with a pair of real black candles. All guests and members are dressed in black—half upon the altar lies a white girl whose body serves as the receptacle for what is properly called the evil of black man. Though this is the central fact of the service, methodical groups of worshippers say, the procedure is a considerable extent. The men may be women as they may incorporate a white and were celebrating itself. There may well be dancing themselves pleasure. But regardless of the ceremonial details, the entire action is designed to null what is customarily called sin and to degrade what is customarily known as virtue. Many of the rituals are extremely ancient, some going back to the earliest Greek and Roman worship. Others were incorporated during the Middle Ages while here in America, a few of the somewhat features of both the Asian and African religions are craft have also been added to. Although both waterfalls and wax ensembles are closely associated with Devil worship, there is an increasingly an liberty. May wellers under the beam, is it necessary for Mord to be spelled during the course of the ceremony. How many people are involved with it, is not precisely known, but it is known that the groups are growing. ■

A DAY IN THE COUNTRY

For the same the whole world over. Give a virgin girl a chance to spend a day in the seclusion of a lovely estate in the country and she can happily retire as anywhere else. So it was with Tini Martin. A London girl, she'd always heard of the fabulous palaces and gardens of the great and noble families of England. But except for a guided tour it's doubtful that she ever expected to spend some time in one of them. And then, one day, the opportunity came. Because of her work as secretary to a television producer, she was invited to join the weekend group at a major house in the county of Hampshire. One of the other guests was photographer Alan Brinkman. More as a joke than anything else, he told Tini that he'd like to shoot some figure studies. Tini surprised herself and just about everyone else by promptly agreeing. Why? Well as she explains it: "Working in television, I'd always secretly hoped to make the grade as an actress. I knew this wasn't acting, but it was a chance to be seen and to get publicity. I wasn't going to pass it by no matter what." As the pictures were taken that very Saturday afternoon using the main house garden and lawn as a background. To say that Tern made the grade would be putting it mildly. Within a week of the time her first photos hit the newsstands, Tern became the toast of London. Suddenly she was in constant demand as every photographer in the British Isles seemed to want her to model at the same time. Within short order she reluctantly quit her secretarial job to devote herself full time to her new profession. But Tern hasn't lost touch with television. And now she works as a performer in the medium. She's appeared on two different girl talk programs and is negotiating for a regular acting position on a series. At the age of 23, Tern has finally earned her cash. And her happy-go-lucky smile have become household words in England. Now it's time that America discovered Teri Martine. So here she is!

A DAY IN THE COUNTRY

THREE LITTLE GIRLS FROM SCHOOL!

Happy are the light-hearted days of college life when you can enjoy the pleasures of the moment without a care for the future. Such are Karen, Mylene and Tami three college girls who are roommates at Louisiana State University. Tami is the brunette, while Karen is the gal in the striped pants. Now we can't say that life is all games, gittins, fights and shoving go. But that helps to pass their meibetween studies, exams, and plenty of party.

...sides. The girls have been raising. Myself here we are not quite and so by now are pretty well into a lot of each other's lives. A friend and sister. By the way Karen is studying Business Administration.
Mylene is taking pre-dental courses while Teri's Liberal Arts classes will eventually lead her to a degree in philosophy. Well, we would like to see one of them ever even study for a career in modeling. ... for so we can see there seems to be something about the 3 of them mightily stirred up. And they do have a knack of coming across through the camera. Just for the record: Karen checks out at 25 24 35 Mylene at 32 24 37 and Teri at 37 23 37. All of which ought to get all three at 35 in a set of 4's in mid-midlife. So there is not too late. But you know we never a day around quite long enough to discover who did win that pillow fight!

dates, the three have been working together ever for but not yet, and so by now are pretty well aware of each other's local "business" and habits. By the way, Karen is studying Business Administration; Mylene is taking pre-dental courses; while Tom is Liberal Arts classes will eventually lead her to a degree in philosophy. But we wonder: Did any of them ever even consider a career in modeling? Well, for as we can see, there seems to be something about the trio that's mighty attractive. And they do have a knack of coming across through the camera. Just for the record, Karen checked out at 36-24-35, Mylene at 38-24-37, and Tom at 37-23-33, all of which ought to get all three of them a lot of A's in mathematics. So there's not long to go. But you know, we never did lay around quite long enough to discover what did win that prize 1 girl!

DEB OF THE MONTH

APRIL O'BRIAN

It's models we offer as our sample of all America (really, a 22-year-old dancing instructor from the city of Phoenix, Arizona by the name of April O'Brian). Caught by the camera during a visit to the west coast, April has high hopes of making her way as either the best of modeling or in the entertainment field. Redheaded, 5'10" long-legged, she's 5'6" tall, weighs 125 pounds and measures a neat 36-34-36 inches. April has been modeling dancing, now for a little more than three years. An expert on the ballroom floor, she has also perfected an exercise technique that she hopes will lead her to something new and better. But it isn't her prowess, cool good looks that endear her to J.E. Rather it's her serene face, classical figure and subtle charms.

UP IN MARY'S ROOM

Meet Mary Wells, the lady of the House. For that's what she is quite literally. A graduate Hornschooled Bachelor employed occasionally as an Oregon waitress devoted to serving beautiful flowers for comfort and style. In her free time, however, Mary really blossoms. She wears, she rules, and as a member of an all girl polo team, with her own official horse gear rating, well, her time did not begin to spend until some three months ago, when she began to pose as a professional model. Check the photographs of Mary.

appeared, however, the deluge began. In one week alone, she received over seven thousand letters, each admiring her. The whole it comes to that magic quality of being able to transcend completely right through the camera lens. Mary has it in spades. But despite all the fans and fuss, Mary just laughs it off. "There it is," she says, "but I can never really be serious about it. Honestly, I'm a woman, and you can take it as an absolute certainty that whatever kind of future I do have, success is going to be the biggest part of it." Now as to the fans and figures, many think I'm new, you're interested in Mary is 24 years old, 5'00" tall, she weighs 116 lbs., and if the tape is telling the truth, figures out at a solid 27-24-35. Her hair is black, her eyes are green, her lips are red and her skin is a soft, pale cream. She must be up to seven's size. She'll soon be seven years

VISIT WITH A MERMAID

The sun, the sand, the sea and the cliffs: they will make a perfect backdrop for a delightful look at femininely appropriately named Unique Lyons. For Unique is one of those girls who seems to have been born in the water. A Goldenstate girl who grew up within a few minutes run of the Pacific, and the way she reports it there's hardly been a day in her life when she hasn't taken full advantage of the ocean's proximity. So when Unique turned to modeling, what major natural setting could anyone find that the seaside cliffs outside her own back door

Now for a few facts about Ursula: A natural redhead, she was born just about 20 years ago (standing 2'4" on her bare feet, weighing in even 116 lbs., she curves about to the tune of at 35-34-35 inches). Although Ursula has always had ambitions in the entertainment industry, she wisely prepared herself for any eventuality by studying accounting, and actually spent over a year working for an accounting firm in Los Angeles before she was discovered. Now that she has established herself as a model and actress, her accounting days are over. Forever, she hopes.
